Potato Prices Promise Good

The outlook for a large potato crop is the best ever known in this county. It is generally admitted that the larger our crop the better prices our farmers may expect. It is also understood that the more buyers, the better the price.

The CHRONICLE feels that it can render valuable aid to the farmers of this section by letting buyers know the approximate crop of potatoes in sight.

Fill in the blank below—no difference whether you are a CHRONICLE subscriber or not—and help us to learn the total acreage of potatoes in the county, the condition of the crop and probable yield per acre. We will then be prepared to write an article that will attract buyers to this section.

Correspondents will confer a special favor by reporting for their neighborhood as fully and carefully as possible. In every case put that information on a separate paper from the news.

No. Acres ..... Estimated Bushels an acre.....

Crop Condition (Good or Bad.) .....

Postoffice .....

Fill in above blank and mail to the CHRONICLE,
 Crossville, Tenn.

WANTED—Twenty-five tie hackers at Dripping Springs station; pay good prices. A. P. Welch.

Register S. C. Cline has just had a well drilled at his residence. The work was done by M. W. West and son, Dell West.

A. P. Welch, Monterey, Tenn., will pay you cash for all the veneer timber you can get out. Load at your nearest railroad station.

Miss Sally Agee, who has been attending Benton High School the past year, returned home Monday to pass the vacation.

GASOLINE ENGINE FOR SALE.

One two-horse power gasoline engine in good working order. It's second hand and will sell very cheap. Inquire at the Chronicle office.

If you desire to load veneer timber at Crossville, Dorton or Dayton Spur, see S. C. Cline.

Mrs. Jos. Deters arrived from Louisville, Ky., Sunday for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. T. M. Rector.

Carl Holloway, son of J. W. Holloway, is now at Fort Oglethorpe in Company 9, Sixth Infantry of the United States regular army.

E. P. Brewer has rented the room in the Potter building formerly occupied by the Cumberland Mercantile Company and moved his grocery stock there yesterday. He expects to do a larger barter business than ever before and has moved to the new quarters in order to have plenty of room.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Congregational church will meet with Mrs. Lelah DeGolia tomorrow, Thursday, afternoon.

The men who lead are the men who read.

For drilling wells see or write J. H. Graham, Pomona, Tenn. 6-6-17.

Mrs. C. M. Collins and little daughter, Louise, of Hazard, Ky., arrived last week to spend a fortnight with homefolks.

Rosecoe Godfrey, of Erasmus, who has been visiting his father in Portland, Oregon, for some weeks, is visiting his brother in Oklahoma this week and next week will go to Dallas, Texas, to visit another brother before returning home. Mr. Godfrey has been absent several weeks with his father who is in very feeble health. He reports crops looking well, but late in Oklahoma. Wheat harvesting is on hands and wheat looks well.

Plenty of small single entry ledgers at the Chronicle office; 180 pages only 35 cents.

J. T. Snodgrass and son, Master James, arrived from Chattanooga last week. Mr. Snodgrass returned home the first of the week, but Master James remained for a visit with relatives.

Plenty of Time Books at the Chronicle office; two weeks' size and monthly, only 10c. Stenographers' note books also.

Judge C. E. Snodgrass and wife and little son, "Pat," went to Celina the first of the week, and will remain here this week while the judge is holding court.

Splendid assortment of Place Cards and Tally Cards; also Five Hundred score pads, at the Chronicle office.

A. S. Ross, Chief Petty Officer U. S. N., in charge of recruiting station, Nashville, was here Sunday the guest of friends.

Mrs. J. T. Weaver and little daughter, Gladys, are here from Glasgow, Ky., to pass a month with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Martin, and other relatives.

If your watch or piece of jewelry needs repairing bring it to the Chronicle office and we will send it away and have it set right. You can pay for it when returned.

Everett Henry, son of Esq. J. H. Henry, Isoline, has enlisted in the regular army and is now in training at Fort Oglethorpe.

W. H. Rockwell, of Dubuque, Iowa, has been here the past few days shaking hands with old friends and acquaintances. Mr. Rockwell lived in the Pomona neighborhood some 20 or more years ago and he now finds the lure so great that he has come back to look around. He is so favorably impressed that he hopes to make arrangements to locate here permanently with his family. He is also planning to locate quite a colony of the best class of Russians at some point in the county. He is wonderfully impressed with the possibilities of this section as a farming country and is anxious to let others know of the great advantages of this section.

If you want score cards and pencils, paper napkins, nice writing paper cut to special size come to the Chronicle office for them.

If any person in the county will have crimson clover seed for sale it will pay him to make it known through the Chronicle as we have had numerous inquiries asking where home grown crimson clover seed could be had. Farmers make a mistake in not letting the public know what they have to sell, not in seeds alone but many other things.

Hogs seem to have been coming into town lately of nights and making themselves troublesome. Under the ordinances of the city any person can catch any hog that is loose within the corporation limits and turn it over to the marshal and it will be placed in the pound. The boys of the town are very watchful to catch hogs and other animals and a fee is paid them by the city for such service, when the animals are delivered to the marshal or the pound.

Miss Violet Haley is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. B. Hayes, Nashville, for a few days.

D. L. Southard and Volner Hamby were in Nashville last week relative to the military company that has been raised here. Mr. Hamby has been promised a commission and Mr. Southard will very likely be captain of the company.

The hot weather of the past few days has done wonders for all growing crops, especially the corn. Farmers are keeping the plows going now with a vim and are very much encouraged at the outlook for crops generally, except grass and that is coming out more than was expected and in some instances there will be a very fair crop, but as a whole grass may be below normal.

Wanted—Several gallons of cherries at the Chronicle office.

Miss Anne Melvin, of Waldensia, was the guest of Mrs. Pearl E. Keyes, Thursday and Friday, and attended the dance given by Miss Carrie Kubin.

All persons are hereby warned to not hunt or in any way trespass on our lands.

G. M. Martin,
 Harry Martin.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

Sunday school at 10 a. m., B. W. Burnett, Superintendent.
 Epworth League, each Wednesday evening at 7:45, Miss Alice Jernigan, President.

Preaching on the First, Third, Fourth and Fifth Sundays of each month, at 11 a. m. and 7:45 p. m.

Clarkrange Second Sunday.
 W. C. Martin, Pastor.

On Thursday evening Miss Carrie Kubin entertained the young people with a dance in the Potter Hall. Punch was served throughout the evening. About thirty young people enjoyed this delightful affair.

The meeting and picnic at Taylor's Chapel Sunday was a rousing success from every point of view. There were fully 500 people present from many points of the county. J. W. Dorton preached an excellent sermon, which was greatly enjoyed by the people. He was followed by J. L. Burnett in a pleasant and interesting talk. The occasion will long be remembered by the people of that section especially. Those who went from Crossville were J. W. Dorton and family, M. F. Reed, J. L. and Lewis Burnett and possibly some others of whom we did not learn.

On account of the revival meeting now in progress there will be no show at the Mecca until Saturday night, but there will be the usual good show that night.

Harry Martin has recently lost close to $100 worth of sheep by dogs. As a result he has killed two or more dogs. No one who will knowingly keep a sheep killing dog in these times of scarcity of food is acting the part of a good citizen. Dogs should be kept at home or suffer the consequence in case they are found even close to sheep. A good dog is a valuable animal, but the common run of dogs are not worth their keep and it is rare indeed that any dog is worth as much as a small bunch of sheep.

Trouble arose in the mill camp near Leavine last week with the result that John Hall was shot five times in the left hand. None of the shots were serious except one that went through the bone of the middle finger near the hand. Five more shots were fired at him, so Hall claims, but all failed to hit him. We have not been able to learn who did the shooting. Dr. V. L. Lewis dressed Hall's hand, but it will be some weeks before he will be able to use it and then he will likely have one finger that will be entirely or partially stiff.

Volner Hamby was taken seriously sick last week just after his return from Nashville. Dr. Lewis was called and found Mr. Hamby suffering from heart weakness. Mr. Hamby was able to be out again Sunday and is rapidly regaining his normal health.

A postoffice has been established at Luraria with J. A. Hale as postmaster.

The Art Circle will meet with Mrs. E. G. Tollett this week.

TIME EXTENDED FOR ENLISTING

Join Crossville Company by Saturday or You Will Be Late.

Davidson Southard and Volner Hamby were in Nashville last week looking after matters relative to the Crossville military company they are organizing. The time for enlistment has been extended to the end of this week.

If you expect to enlist and want to get in with those you know you must enlist not later than Saturday as that is the last day recruits will be accepted.

The recruiting officer is expected here the last of this week or the first of next. Davidson Southard will notify all who have enlisted when to report for examination. Hold yourself in readiness to come at once on notice from Mr. Southard. Drilling is going on daily in the headquarters over the Cooper store. Report if you wish to receive first drill instructions.

CAMEL RIDING NOT EASY JOB

Beginner Has Feeling Akin to Seasickness Owing to the Peculiar Gait of the Animal.

Camel riding is learned only at the price of suffering. This is because of the peculiar gait of this animal, which produces a feeling akin to that of seasickness, owing to the swaying motion of the body caused by the fact that the two legs of one side move simultaneously.

This animal thrives only in desert regions. And herein lies its usefulness to man, for by its means alone is he enabled to cross barren tracts otherwise impassable. This ability to live without water and with little food for long periods is due to two natural reservoirs. Water is stored in special pockets in the lining of the stomach, while a large mass of fat is stored on the back, forming the characteristic hump—though, according to popular belief, it is here that the water is held.

Though it will manage to subsist for long periods on the thorny scrub such as forms the only vegetation of desert areas, and with very little water, its complacency in these matters may be overtaxed, as was disastrously shown during the first expedition to Khartum.

Two other factors in the adaptability of the camel to a desert life have to be taken into account. These are the feet and the nostrils. The first-named have but two toes, protected by very thick, horny pads to resist the burning sand; while the nostrils are long and slitlike, and can be closed at will, thereby enabling the animal to survive the awful sandstorms which so frequently endanger the lives of travelers.

PROF. W. E. WHEELER HONORED

Banquet Served by Pleasant Hill Friends
 Saturday, June 23.

On the evening of June 23, the people of Pleasant Hill gave a surprise supper on the lawn at the Wheeler Hall in honor of Prof. W. E. Wheeler, who is to leave the Southland and go to his future home in Wethersfield, Connecticut, on June 27, 1917.

The people came from every direction, carrying baskets heavily laden with good things, and owing to the inclemency of the weather gathered in Wheeler Hall till Prof. Wheeler announced that it would probably not rain till the feast would be over. This announcement having been made, a number of young men busied themselves in carrying tables from the dining room to the number of eight.

The ladies now unloaded their baskets, making the table fairly groan with the numerous good things taken therefrom.

About one hundred people gathered about the table and Rev. L. F. Smith offered prayer, after which D. W. Lundy gave a very fluent and interesting address which was responded to by Prof. Wheeler in his good sympathetic manner.

Before the cakes were cut, Prof. Wheeler was asked to select a cake to send to his wife in Connecticut. He chose the one made by Mrs. T. H. Stanley and Miss Hattie Ramsey. The cake was snow white encircled with pink roses. These words were very artistically arranged on the cake: "Rev. W. E. Wheeler, June 23, 1917."

Everyone enjoyed the good things and also the social hour which followed.

Prof. Wheeler has spent half of his life in our lovely Southland and twenty five of these years have been spent in Pleasant Hill. It is with deep regret that we give up such a proficient and conscientious person and we shall always hold dear in our memory one who has done so much in the upbuilding of our community and in the education of the young people, not only in our own state, but in many other states, which have sent their boys and girls to Pleasant Hill Academy for instruction.

Prof. Wheeler has a wide circle of friends here who wish for him a most pleasant and happy future.

PASSED AWAY.

Miss Patronell Dreutzer Died Yesterday
 at 3 a.m. of Nervous Trouble.

Miss Petronell Dreutzer, age, 34, died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Dreutzer, yesterday morning at three o'clock, as the result of extreme nervousness, although she had been a patient sufferer for several years.

The funeral services will be conducted at the home at 9 o'clock this morning and the remains interred in the city cemetery. Rev. R. E. Newton will conduct the services, assisted by Judge C. E. Snodgrass, in the event he arrives from Celina, where he is holding court. He is hardly expected to arrive because of the distance and the difficulty of reaching here in time for the services.

Otto Dreutzer, a brother, arrived this morning from Cincinnati, as did her sister, Mrs. Fred Bradshaw, from Atlanta, and her sister, Miss Dollie Dreutzer, arrived from Chattanooga yesterday.

The deceased was a most lovable character. In spite of having been an invalid for many years she was always cheerful and performed much work in the way of embroidery and fancy work. Her work was of unusual delicacy and beauty and was the admiration of all who saw it. Her mind was very bright and she read much to her father, who, owing to failing sight, is unable to read. She was always patient and rarely ever complained; was possessed of a sunny disposition that was the marvel of all who knew her. Her constant gentleness and loving kindness to all has rendered her much beloved by those who were favored by knowing her.

The deepest sympathy is felt by Crossville people for the bereaved parents and everything was done that kindness could suggest to soften the deep pangs of sorrow that have fallen like a pall on the hearts of the parents and relatives.

RED CROSS WINS.

The great campaign that has been on the past week for One Hundred Millions of dollars for the Red Cross has won out in admirable shape. The complete returns are almost sure to show a total subscription of not less than $105,000,000.

Nashville subscribed over $180,000. New York city has subscribed over $35,000,000 or fully one-third of the total amount raised in the entire United States.
